

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded on hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Chauncey Christiansen has served as a faithful, hard-working member of the Gayville-Volin School Board for 16 years; and,

Whereas, Chauncey has faithfully and competently provided quality leadership for the Gayville-Volin Board of Education as the distinguished chairperson for several of those 16 years; and,

Whereas, Under Chauncey's board membership, the Gayville-Volin School District has enhanced in multiple areas, including three construction projects, and multiple academic improvements; and,

Whereas, Chauncey has gone "above and beyond the call of duty" for the Gayville-Volin School District many times in his roles as member and chairperson of the Board of Education; and,

Whereas, Chauncey has, at all times, provided a high standard of conduct in his role on the Gayville-Volin Board, which enhances the image of the district; and,

Whereas, The members of the Gayville-Volin Board of Education and the Gayville-Volin Administrative staff individually and collectively, express their deep and grateful appreciation to Chauncey Christiansen for his unselfish dedication, service, and personal friendship to the Gayville-Volin School District:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 14, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends, and family as they recognize Chauncey for his commitment to a job well done.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
